Policy -Terms and Conditions of Membership

Introduction

These Terms and Conditions outline the obligations of the members of U3A Banyule Incorporated.

Membership of U3A Banyule Inc. is provided under the following terms and conditions. Members will be asked to agree with these conditions when applying for and renewing their membership.

Responsibilities of Members

1. Always act in the best interests of the U3A and never do anything to bring the U3A into disrepute
2. Abide by the Rules, Policies, and the Code of Conduct and Procedures of U3A Banyule.
3. Always treat fellow members with respect and courtesy
4. Comply with and support the decisions of the elected Committee of Management
5. Advise any changes in your personal details using the member Management System (MyU3A) in the first instance
6. Wear and display your current membership name badge, including emergency contact details, whenever attending a course or event.
7. Register your attendance at each class by signing the attendance sheet. This may involve scanning the QR code and displaying evidence of your vaccination status when required by Government regulations.

Members acknowledge that:

8. To enrol in any U3A course or activity you need to be a current financial member.
9. Enrolment in a course may not guarantee acceptance. If your enrolment can't be accepted (e.g. class full/course cancelled) you will be notified as soon as possible.

10. If you are unable to continue your enrolment in a class, you should cancel your enrolment in that class through MyU3A or by notifying the Office. As a courtesy you should also notify your Tutor so that your place can be offered to a member on the class waitlist.
11. Members can enrol in a maximum of two courses within the Exercise category to ensure that there is fairness of access for all members. Classes in this category include yoga, tai chi, walking, gentle exercise, express yourself, Pilates and qigong.
12. Membership is not transferable.
13. U3A Banyule may call a medical attendant or ambulance in the case of an emergency affecting a member. Any expense incurred will be the responsibility of that member.
14. Every care is taken by U3A Banyule to ensure the safety of participants. Some activities may expose you to risks that could lead to injury, loss or medical consequences in which case members accept personal responsibility and liability
15. U3A Banyule reserves all rights to film, photo and video classes and activities, and will endeavour to respect members' privacy preferences if known. If members do not wish for any photographs and/or videos to be used by U3A Banyule they must make requests known at the time the photo or video is taken.
16. Some classes and activities may attract an additional charge to cover extra costs or outlays.
17. The annual membership fee is payable and is non-refundable. In exceptional circumstances the Executive Committee may authorise a refund.
18. Any data collected by U3A Banyule will be in accordance with the Privacy Policy.
19. U3A Banyule will communicate by email to keep members informed about classes and activities, and appropriate community news.
20. U3A Banyule may provide members with links to other websites and this in no way constitutes an endorsement of those sites or their content and U3A Banyule has no control over the conduct of the companies or organisations operating those websites.
